IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Selection of New Program Supervisor

Navajo Nation Occupational Safety & Health Administration (NNOSHA)

NOTIFICATION TO ALL NAVAJO NATION EMPLOYEES:

It is with great pleasure that we announce the appointment of Mr. Frank D. Roanhorse as the new Program Supervisor I of the Navajo Nation Occupational Safety & Health Administration (NNOSHA). Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Mr. Roanhorse as he assumes this important role within our organization.

Mr. Roanhorse comes to us with a wealth of experience, having served in the U.S. Military and gained 25 years of valuable work experience in external occupations both off the Navajo Nation and in Los Angeles, California. His decision to return to the Navajo Nation is a testament to his personal commitment and dedication to caring for his family. We commend his selfless choice to come back to his roots and contribute to the well-being of our community.

With his extensive knowledge and leadership skills, we are confident that Mr. Roanhorse will be a valuable asset to NNOSHA, the Division of Human Resources, and the entire Navajo Nation. His experience and education will undoubtedly play a crucial role in the growth and improvement of our occupational safety and health program.

We express our sincere congratulations to Mr. Roanhorse and eagerly anticipate the positive impact he will make in his new role. Welcome to our team, and we look forward to a collaborative and successful journey ahead.

Debbie Nez-Manuel, MSW, Division Director
Navajo Division of Human Resources
